

Prineville teens arrested for burglary â€“ again

by Cheryl McDermott

The same two Prineville teenagers arrested and accused of burglarizing a Bi-Mart store in mid-July, then again a week later in connection with graffiti â€œtaggingâ€• of numerous businesses using paint they alleged stole from an equipment shed of a local little league field, have been arrested yet again â€“ this time in connection with the theft of $5,000 in merchandise from Joeâ€™s Eastside Market, police reported.

Robert James Atkinson (left); Roy Miller (right) - CCJ photos Robert James Atkinson, 18, and Roy Miller, also 18, were taken into custody today following a five-day investigation into the October 20 burglary where the market - a small corner grocery store that also sells miscellaneous goods - was robbed of several thousands of dollars worth of merchandise during the night, Chief Eric Bush said. â€œSeveral items stolen during the burglary were recovered,â€• he added.

Both suspects were lodged in the Crook County Jail and are charged with first-degree theft and second-degree burglary. Bail for each is set at $10,000.
